

Diamond Reads
By Mom, March 2019

Diamond gets groomed every 8 weeks by Aussie Pet Mobile. When Diamond sees Noreen [her groomer], she growls and barks.... Wants to “rip out her throat” as I carry her out to the van in the driveway. As we get within a few feet of Noreen, Diamond abruptly changes and starts shaking like a leaf. After I hand her to Noreen, Diamond wags her tail and kisses Noreen. The entire time Diamond is being groomed [I can see her on the table through the window], Diamond is wagging her tail. After Noreen brings Diamond back into the house and puts her down, Diamond reverts to growling and barking at her till she leaves. Crazy dog. She is bipolar. When Bob and Diamond are walking, if she sees ANY Aussie Pet Mobile van in anyone’s driveway, Diamond drags Bob in the other direction.... Leading me to believe that Diamond can read the Aussie Pet Mobile logo.

Note: Diamond is a Yorkie poo who lived at FloridaWild for 8 months. She was rescued from a hoard/breeder. No one wanted her because she was temperamental, needed a stay-at-home family who’d give her infinite care, compassion, and love. The stories her mom sends me are hilarious. I wish we had the space to share all of them here. I told her mom she needed to put Diamond’s escapades on YouTube. Every word mom writes is true. I’ve been to the house and see for myself how she interacts with her surroundings. (Maggi Hall)
